

Robert Adrian Bio

Robert has had successful careers in both the music industry and the corporate world. He grew up playing and teaching the guitar, working in music stores, and performing professionally. He went on to earn a bachelor's degree in music.

Robert founded and operated a musical instrument store and private music school in Oregon City that provided private lessons and group classes to over 250 students per week.

As his interest in business management grew, he completed a master's degree in business management with an emphasis in marketing, finance, and strategic planning.

He has held business development positions in a wide variety of industries including technology, merchandising, product development, human resources, accounting, banking, and nonprofit sectors.

In an advisory and consulting capacity he has worked with companies from the smallest size to the largest, including startups, family businesses, private equity owned, nonprofits and publicly held organizations.

Today Robert works as a Financial Advisor with a local institution and provides advisory, coaching, mentoring, and cheerleading to business owners, individuals, and families who wish to maximize their financial opportunities, prepare for retirement, and to reach their unique goals.
